

Mother's Day

Dear Sir / Madam

Mother's Day Dining

With Mother's Day fast approaching you might now be considering celebrating with your family. We at the Chequers Inn Hotel, Forest Row, are delighted to bring to you our 'Mother's Day' lunch and Dinner menu, we believe you will find appetising.

Head chef Leo, has developed a reputation for his skills in creating homemade dishes, using locally sourced produce from butchers, fishmongers and greengrocers, to produce food that will tempt the taste buds.

Our Mother's Day Menu will be served in our candle lit restaurant or bar area, accompanied by relaxing music.

Champenoise

To help your meal be even more special, we have selected two Champenoise, which we are offering by the glass or bottle. Breaky Bottom, Kir Royal, produced by Peter Hall at his small vinyard nestled in the South Downs and Prosecco Santa Orsola from the North of Italy in the Venezia.

Accommodation

Should you require accommodation, we are offering, to diners, the following special rates in our hotel: £70.00 for a standard double and £85.00 for a four poster bedroom, all En-Suite inclusive of complimentary English or continental breakfast.

Dining space and accommodation is limited and to avoid disappointment, booking is strongly recommended. Diners are advised to contact us to check availability.

You may also be interested to look at our website, which provides a comprehensive guide to our products and services at the Chequers. If you require further information please do not hesitate to contact us between the hours of 09:00 to 17:30, Monday to Friday.

Yours faithfully

Mr Matthew Holloway